Headline:
Very cold, with sunny spells. Brisk winds.

Today:
A cold and bright start, although perhaps a little cloudier across western parts. Staying dry, with prolonged sunshine likely for most parts through the day. Remaining cold, particularly in the brisk wind. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tonight:
Another cold night with early cloud breaking and clear spells developing. Feeling especially cold in the strong winds. Staying dry. Icy patches possible. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Saturday:
Another cold day, and feeling especially raw in the strong winds. Early sunshine turning hazy for some later as cloud continues to thicken, especially across western parts. Staying dry throughout. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Windy, cold Sunday, before brief snow and sleet spread east, quickly turning to rain. Icy conditions possible, but soon thawing. Milder temperatures Monday and Tuesday, but also rain at times.
